State your problem.

What do you want instead? (This is your challenge.)

How will you know when you have it?

When and where do you want it?

What will happen when you have it?

What will happen if you don't have it?

What won't happen if you don't have it?

What resources do you have available to achieve this outcome?

(If you had to guess...) What are you going to do... to begin now... to get what you want?
